

GENERAL BIBLE READING QUESTIONS:

1. What does the text say?

Summarize the text. What is it revealing about God? How does it point to the gospel?

2. What does the text mean?

What did it mean to those in the story/text?
What did it mean to the first audience reading or hearing it?

3. What does the text reveal?

What does this text uniquely reveal? What is lost from the bible if this text is removed?
What is the main point? Are their subpoints being made?

4. What does the text do to you?

How does this text push against worldly/fleshly thoughts and actions? What does the text mean to you? How should you respond?

GENERAL BIBLE READING QUESTIONS:

1. What does the text say?

Summarize the text. What is it revealing about God? How does it point to the gospel?

2. What does the text mean?

What did it mean to those in the story/text?
What did it mean to the first audience reading or hearing it?

3. What does the text reveal?

What does this text uniquely reveal? What is lost from the bible if this text is removed?
What is the main point? Are their subpoints being made?

4. What does the text do to you?

How does this text push against worldly/fleshly thoughts and actions? What does the text mean to you? How should you respond?

GENERAL BIBLE READING QUESTIONS:

1. What does the text say?

Summarize the text. What is it revealing about God? How does it point to the gospel?

2. What does the text mean?

What did it mean to those in the story/text?
What did it mean to the first audience reading or hearing it?

3. What does the text reveal?

What does this text uniquely reveal? What is lost from the bible if this text is removed?
What is the main point? Are their subpoints being made?

4. What does the text do to you?

How does this text push against worldly/fleshly thoughts and actions? What does the text mean to you? How should you respond?

BIBLE READING PRINCIPLES:

Context (Historical, Literary, and Biblical)

It cannot mean anything to us that it did not mean to them.

Scripture interprets Scripture

The clear interprets the vague.

BIBLE READING PRINCIPLES:

Context (Historical, Literary, and Biblical)

It cannot mean anything to us that it did not mean to them.

Scripture interprets Scripture

The clear interprets the vague.

BIBLE READING PRINCIPLES:

Context (Historical, Literary, and Biblical)

It cannot mean anything to us that it did not mean to them.

Scripture interprets Scripture

The clear interprets the vague.